PERFORMING ARTS

THE DUSTY 45s // August 21, 2021

THE DUSTY 45s Named Best Band by Seattle Weekly readers three years in a row, the Dusty 45s deliver rockin' high energy music from twang country to jump blues, from surf rock to Dixieland, served up with two wailing electric guitars, slappin' upright base and guaranteed knockdown drumming. Led by charismatic singer/songwriter Billy Joe Huels, the raucous band tears through Huels' original songs that draw inspiration from the roots of rock, rhythm and blues, honky tonk and jazz. Current members of the Dusty 45s also include Jerry Battista on lead guitar, Rod Cook on lead guitar, Robin Cady on upright bass, and Kohen Burrill on the drums.

» Free In-the-Park Concert – Presented in cooperation with the Mayor, City Council and City of Fallon «

JOHN JORGENSEN BLUEGRASS BAND An all-star bluegrass super group featuring four legendary, award-winning musicians – John Jorgenson on acoustic guitar and vocals; Herb Pedersen on banjo, acoustic guitar and vocals; Mark Fain on bass; and Patrick Sauber on acoustic guitar and vocals – who deliver bluegrass like no one has ever heard it before. The four combine forces to form a spot-on union of impeccable musicianship, incomparable songwriting, incredible harmony vocals (a fresh twist combining bluegrass with elements of West Coast folk rock) and seasoned showmanship. This is the “high lonesome sound” of American roots music at its finest.

AMERICAN PATCHWORK QUARTET Featuring Grammy-nominated vocalist Falu Shah, an 11th generation classical Hindustani musician; Grammy-winning guitarist/vocalist Clay Ross, a co-founder of Ranky Tanky; 3x Grammy-winning drummer Clarence Penn, a drumming protégée of the late Ellis Marsalis; and, highly acclaimed bassist Yasushi Nakamura, a first-call Issei jazz bassist. American Patchwork Quartet weave modern immigrant dreams into songs, and showcase the dynamic diversity of contemporary culture by reimagining timeless songs from America's past. Old songs are made new through creative arrangements that highlight the exceptional and well-honed skills of each member.

JOHN JORGENSEN BLUEGRASS BAND // October 16, 2021

AMERICAN PATCHWORK QUARTET // November 13, 2021

PERFORMING ARTS

DEL CASTILLO TRIO “Whether Del Castillo works in Spanish or English, they rock righteously. The Spanish guitars’ flamenco vibe gives a dramatic flair, abetted by passionate vocals,” says Billboard Magazine. This Austin, Texas-based trio – the del Castillo brothers, Rick and Mark, playing Spanish guitars, and award winning vocalist, Alex Ruiz – has developed a huge following. Their original music blends rock, Latin, blues, and world music into a cinematic celebration of sound that lifts your soul. They have won 10 Austin Music Awards while also touring with Stix, Los Lobos, Don Henley, Los Lonely Boys, and Willie Nelson. Rolling Stone says the band “conjures images of Eddie Van Halen fronting early Santana (with an assist from the Gypsy Kings).”

PORTLAND CELLO PROJECT Giving new meaning to ideas of an Indie-Orchestra, the twelve-member ensemble gives classical music a high energy jolt. The group has built a reputation for mixing genres and blurring borders, taking on everything from Bach and Arvo Pärt to Dave Brubeck, Kanye West and Pantera. Their performances feature brilliant renditions of a range of music you wouldn’t expect to hear coming from a cello, including blending their deep textures with the unique harmonic landscape of the artistic power of Prince. Joined by musicians who have worked with Prince such as Saeeda Wright and Tyrone Hendrix, expect a lively evening of diversely-curated music that influenced or was influenced by The Purple One.

LE VENT DU NORD The award winning and highly acclaimed band is a leading force in Quebec’s progressive francophone folk movement. Their vast repertoire draws from both traditional sources and original compositions, while enhancing their hard-driving soulful music (rooted in the Celtic diaspora) with a broad range of global influences. Featuring button accordion, guitar and fiddle, the band’s sound is defined by the hurdy-gurdy, which adds an earthy, rough-hewn flavor to even the most buoyant dance tunes. They have enjoyed meteoric success, performing 1,800 concerts over 5 continents and racking up several prestigious awards, including a Grand Prix du Disque Charles Cros, two Junos (Canada’s Grammys), a Félix at ADISQ, a Canadian Folk Music Award, and “Artist of the Year” at the North American Folk Alliance Annual Gala.

PERFORMING ARTS

MEKLIT // May 21, 2022

MEKLIT Meqlet, and her five-piece band, have rocked stages from Addis Ababa to San Francisco, New York to Nairobi, London to Arusha, Montreal to Cairo, and more. Her electric stage presence, her innovative take on Ethio-Jazz, and fiery, emotive delivery results in a killer live show. Her album, When the People Move, the Music Moves Too, received rave reviews and reached #4 on the iTunes World Music Charts, #1 on the NACC World Charts, and #12 on the World Charts in Europe. She has been featured on NPR, NY Magazine, PRI's The World, BBC Africa, BBC World Service, BBC Women's Hour, The New Yorker, The Village Voice, and more.

DWAYNE DOPSIE & THE ZYDECO HELLRAISERS
// June 18, 2022

Dwayne Dopsie is easily one of the most exuberant accordionists in the world, prompting Rolling Stone to call him "the Jimi Hendrix of the accordion." His award-winning, Grammy-nominated band Dwayne Dopsie & the Zydeco Hellraisers is a culmination of generations of the Zydeco tradition. Their music puts you squarely in the heart of New Orleans, where the genre's roots grew from French Creole musical traditions, blending blues, rhythm and blues, funk, rock and roll, reggae, pop as well as the indigenous music of the Louisiana Creoles and the Native people of Louisiana.

LITERARY ARTS

DAVID ANTHONY DURHAM // October 23, 2021

David Anthony Durham is an American novelist, author of historical fiction and fantasy.

Durham's first novel, Gabriel's Story, centered on African American settlers in the American West. Walk Through Darkness followed a runaway slave during the tense times leading up to the American Civil War. Pride of Carthage focused on Hannibal Barca of Ancient Carthage and his war with the Roman Republic. His Acacia Trilogy is an award-winning epic fantasy series. His most recent novel, The Risen, is about the Spartacus slave rebellion in ancient Rome. His next, The Shadow Prince, is the start of a middlegrade fantasy series set in a solarpunk ancient Egypt. He also writes for the Wild Cards series of collaborative novels, edited by George R. R. Martin.

Durham has won the John W. Campbell Award for Best New Writer, a Legacy Award, was a Finalist for the Prix Imaginales and has twice had his books named New York Times Notable Book of the year. Four of his novels have been optioned for development as feature films.

MINDY NETTIFEE // April 30, 2022

Mindy Nettifee, PhD is a poet, artist educator, depth somatic researcher and practitioner, and a psychonaut. She holds a doctorate in depth psychology with a somatic studies specialization, and recently published her doctoral research Voice as Embodied Sense – Rethinking Voice and Language in Trauma Healing. She is also the author of three full-length collections of poems: Sleepyhead Assassins (Moon Tide Press), Rise of the Trust Fall (Write Bloody Press), and Open Your Mouth Like a Bell (Write Bloody Press). She is a three-time nominee for the Pushcart Prize, a Powell's Books Indie Press Best Seller, and co-editor of the anthology Courage – Daring Poems for Gutsy Girls (Write Bloody Press).

Nettifee has performed and taught in over 500 venues, colleges and universities across America and Europe, competed in five National Poetry Slams, opened for indie rock act the Cold War Kids, headlined national poetry tours The Last Nerve, The Whirlwind Company and The Poetry Revival, and was featured in the critically acclaimed poetry concert documentary The Drums Inside Your Chest. Her stories have been featured on The Moth podcast.

FALL FILM SERIES COMING OF AGE

PAN'S LABYRINTH* (2006) // September 10, 2021 Mexican filmmaker Guillermo del Toro directs this haunting fantasy-drama set in the aftermath of the Spanish Civil War and detailing the strange journeys of an imaginative young girl who may be the mythical princess of an underground kingdom. Shy young Ofelia (Ivana Baquero) is forced to entertain herself while her recently remarried mother, Carmen (Ariadna Gil), lies immobilized in anticipation of her forthcoming child with sadistic army captain Vidal (Sergi López). While her high-ranking stepfather remains determined to fulfill the orders of General Francisco Franco to crush a nearby guerilla uprising, the young girl soon ventures into an elaborate stone labyrinth presided over by the mythical faun Pan (Doug Jones) and sets out to reclaim her kingdom.

LADY BIRD* (2017) // September 17, 2021 This coming-of-age tale set in 2002 Sacramento centers on Christine McPherson (Saoirse Ronan), an eccentric teenager who prefers to go by the name "Lady Bird." Over the course of her senior year of high school, Lady Bird deals with the pangs of first love and clashes with her mother (Laurie Metcalf) over her plans for the future. Written and directed by Greta Gerwig, who loosely based the story on her own life. Tracy Letts, Timothee Chalamet, and Lucas Hedges co-star.

MINARI* (2020) // September 24, 2021 Steven Yeun, Yeri Han, Yuh-jung Youn, and Will Patton star in writer-director Lee Isaac Chung's poignant and semi-autobiographical immigrant family drama. A Korean American family relocates to a small farm in Arkansas in the 1980s – to pursue their own version of the American Dream. The arrival of their irreverent grandmother disrupts the balance they try to maintain between cultural assimilation and autonomy.

FILM SERIES

SPRING FILM SERIES VAMPIRIC

THE HUNGER (1983) // February 11, 2022 The exquisitely beautiful Catherine Deneuve plays Miriam, a centuries-old vampire capable of bestowing the gift of immortality on her lovers – namely her current partner John (David Bowie). When John awakens one morning to discover telltale signs of aging, it is revealed that his own sustained youth is not permanent. In a panic, John visits the clinic of scientist Sarah Roberts (Susan Sarandon), who has recently published a book on reversing the aging process. With John consigned by Miriam to a box in the attic with her legions of undead lovers, Sarah is seduced into a steamy lesbian tryst.

FROM DUSK TILL DAWN (1996) // February 18, 2022 In this action-horror flick from director Robert Rodriguez and screenwriter Quentin Tarantino, Tarantino stars with George Clooney as a pair of sadistic brothers. After a string of robberies, the siblings head to Mexico to live the good life. To get over the border, they kidnap a widowed preacher (Harvey Keitel) and his two children (Juliette Lewis and Ernest Liu). Once in Mexico they visit a trucker bar where the brothers are supposed to meet a local thug. They soon realize that they're not in a typical bar, as the entire place begins to teem with vicious, blood-sucking vampires.

LET THE RIGHT ONE IN (2008) // February 25, 2022 A 12-year-old boy befriends a mysterious young girl whose appearance in town suspiciously coincides with a horrifying series of murders in director Tomas Alfredson's film. Oskar is a young boy who can't seem to shake off the local bullies, but all of that begins to change when a new neighbor moves in next door. After striking up a friendship with his eccentric neighbor, Oskar realizes that she is the vampire responsible for the recent rash of deaths around town. Despite the danger, however, Oskar's friendship with the girl ultimately takes precedence over his fear of her.

SEATING CHART FOR BARKLEY THEATRE

ABOUT THE OATS PARK ART CENTER

Efforts to provide a permanent home for the Churchill Arts Council's programs began with a series of community and regional meetings in 1989, which identified the historic Oats Park School building in Fallon as a potential candidate to house a multi-discipline community arts center. The structure was nominated to the Nevada and National Registers of Historic Places in 1990 and a Feasibility/Concept Study was commissioned and completed in 1992. The Study was extremely positive about returning the building to community use and – thanks to the funding from the National Endowment for the Arts, Arts Facilities Design Program – a Design Development report was completed in 1993. Construction documents for the entire art center were completed and construction and renovation began in 1996. In July 1999, Oats Park was designated as an Official Project of Save America's Treasures – a public-private partnership of the White House Millennium Council and the National Trust for Historic Preservation. As such, Oats Park joined a very select group of historic resources that have been chosen to represent America's treasures in need of support for their preservation and renovation. To proceed in the most cost effective manner and to accommodate available funding, construction and renovation has been implemented in a series of dovetailing and/or overlapping phases. The theatre opened in 2003, visual art galleries in 2006, and the final portions, including a café and catering kitchen were completed in 2016.
